

Combination lock 1147

The lock 1147 is our simplest solution of the single - user lock variant.

It has a mechanical code assignment and can be opened with the help of an emergency opening-help.

Both the code identification and the code blurring have to be done manually.

The 1147 is attached by means of a retaining clip.

single - user

Plastic
Housing

Installation depth

Product details

- 3-wheel number combination with 1,000 possible combinations
- No user administration required
- Available in black as standard, other colours on request

